

Discovering Your Spiritual Gifts

Compliments of iWorshipCenter, Springfield, IL

This paperwork will help you determine your spiritual gifts, enabling you to serve other people and the Lord more effectively as you better understand your position within His Body, the Church (for more information, please read I Corinthians 12:7-27). This is a vitally important exercise which you should approach seriously and with prayer.

Please respond to each of the 150 statements with a number from 0 to 4, using the following scale:

- 0 = Strongly Disagree
- 1 = Disagree
- 2 = Middle
- 3 = Agree
- 4 = Strongly Agree

Please note that there are no "right" or "wrong" responses; just respond honestly. If a particular statement does not apply to you in any way, please respond with a 0 (zero).

PLEASE NOTE: The results of this exercise will not be a completely accurate indication of your all your spiritual gifts. This is only a guide which may be useful to you. Feel free to disagree with all or part of the results; they are not a perfect indication of your spiritual abilities, capabilities, or availabilities, but a good reflection.*

May God richly bless you as you endeavor to serve Him.

INTRODUCTION TO SPIRITUAL GIFTS

"Now about spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant."

I Corinthians 12:1, New International Version (NIV)

1. What are "spiritual gifts"?

- Spiritual gifts are supernatural abilities distributed by the Holy Spirit to members of the Body of Christ; the gifts are special attributes given by God's grace to empower His people to serve Him and His people more effectively.
- Used not just in the 4 walls of the church – but even @ work
- Charisma = Gifts Charis = Grace
- You can not separate the gifts from His grace
- You can't earn these Or you've eliminated Charis

2. Who gets spiritual gifts?

- All Believers: and not limited to just one gift, as most have a mixture of gifts – called a GIFT- MIX
- I Peter 4:10 says, "As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God."

3. Who decides what gifts we receive?

- I Corinthians 12:11 says that the Holy Spirit distributes spiritual gifts "to each one individually just as He wills."
- You can not get them from a seminar! – Only God gives them
- Gifts are received NOT achieved

4. Why are the gifts given?

- a. I Corinthians 12:7 -- "to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good."
- b. Ephesians 4:12-13 -- "for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ; until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ."

- c. I Peter 4:10 -- "employ it in serving one another, as good stewards...."
 - d. Hebrews 2:3-4 says that God confirmed the truth of the gospel of salvation "by signs and wonders and by various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit according to His own will."
5. What about my natural talents and abilities?
- a. There is no doubt God can use your natural talents and abilities. For example, some people have natural musical ability which they can put to good use as Christians.
 - b. However, spiritual gifts are more supernatural than natural. For example, if a Christian lays hands on a blind woman and prays for her to receive her sight, we all recognize that the Christian does not have the power to restore sight. If God restores the woman's sight, it was His mighty power channeled through the believer which made the miracle possible.
6. What about normal Christian roles and activities?
- o There are some things expected of every Christian. All Christians, for example, are commanded to witness for Christ, but not all have the missionary gift, nor are all evangelists. Lack of these gifts, however, cannot be used as an excuse to avoid witnessing!
7. What if I can't identify any particular gift?
- a. If someone accepted Christ yesterday, we wouldn't expect the brand-new Christian to instantly identify his or her spiritual gifts. In fact, it may be years before the Lord begins manifesting a particular gift in that person's life.
 - b. If you are not able to identify any particular gift as yours, then remember that your relationship to the Giver is far more important than the gifts. Concentrate on serving Him to the very best of your ability, however small or limited you perceive that to be. Simply "trust and obey," and God will bless you accordingly.
8. What if I don't want to use my Gifts?
You're in trouble!
Remember the story of the talents (Mat. 25) in the Bible? 10 – 5 - 1

THIRTY SPIRITUAL GIFTS DEFINITIONS

SPIRITUAL GIFTS -- Supernatural abilities distributed by the Holy Spirit among members of the Body of Christ; the' gifts are special attributes given by God's grace to empower His people to serve Him and His people more effectively.

1. ADMINISTRATOR -- One who understands clearly the immediate and long-range goals of a particular part of the Body of Christ; one who devises and executes effective plans for the accomplishment of those goals. (I Corinthians 12:28) NOTE: The Greek word means "helmsman," the person in charge of getting the ship to its destination. The word "administrator" identifies this as a person in charge, not someone who is good at typing and filing.
2. APOSTLE -- (sent one) One who assumes and exercises general leadership over a number of churches with an extraordinary ability in spiritual matters which is spontaneously recognized and appreciated by those churches. (I Corinthians 12:28; Ephesians 4:11)
3. AUTHORSHIP -- The ability to use words and other written symbols to effectively communicate spiritual ideas and concepts. (I Corinthians 14:37).
4. CELIBACY -- The ability to remain single and to serve God better because of it, to be unmarried and not suffer undue sexual temptations. (I Corinthians 7:7)
5. CRAFTSMANSHIP -- The ability to design or produce artistic or useful items to enhance the beauty and purpose of God's creation. (Exodus 31:3)
6. DISCERNMENT -- The ability to know with assurance whether certain behavior purported to be of God is in reality divine, human, or satanic. (I Corinthians 12:10)
7. EVANGELIST -- One who shares the Gospel with unbelievers in such a way that people become disciples of Jesus Christ and responsible members of the Body of Christ. (Ephesians 4:11)
8. EXHORTATION -- The ability to minister words of comfort, consolation, encouragement, and counsel to other members of the Body of Christ in such a way that they feel helped and healed. (Romans 12:8) NOTE: The key word is "encouragement," and it may be one-on-one or in a group situation.
9. EXORCISM -- In the power and authority of Jesus Christ, the ability to cast out demons. (Mark 16:17)
10. FAITH -- The ability to discern with extraordinary confidence the will and purposes of God for the future of His work. (I Corinthians 12:9) NOTE: Every Christian has faith, or they wouldn't be Christians. However, only a few have the gift of this special kind of faith.

11. GIVING -- The ability to contribute time, effort, and material resources to the work of the Lord with liberality and cheerfulness. (Romans 12:8) NOTE: Every Christian is commanded to give, but only some have the special gift of giving. If someone believes they don't have this gift, they cannot use that as an excuse not to give!
12. HEALINGS -- The ability to serve as a channel through whom God can supernaturally cure people in body, soul, and spirit. (I Corinthians 12:9, 28)
13. HELPS -- The ability to invest one's time and efforts in the life and ministry of other members of the Body of Christ, thus enabling the person helped to increase the effectiveness of his or her spiritual gifts. (I Corinthians 12:28) NOTE: The emphasis is helping people, allowing them more time to exercise their gifts. This is different from the gift of service, which is more task- or goal-oriented.
14. HOSPITALITY -- The ability to share a home and warmly welcome those in need of food, lodging and fellowship. (I Peter 4:9) !
15. INTERCESSION -- The ability to pray for extended periods of time on a regular basis and to see frequent and specific answers to one's prayers, to regularly intervene on behalf of other members of the Body of Christ. (James 5:16b) NOTE: All Christians are expected to pray, but only some have the special gift of intercession.
16. INTERPRETATION -- The ability to make known in normal speech the general idea of a message which has been given in tongues. (I Corinthians 12:10)
17. KNOWLEDGE -- The ability to understand facts from the natural or supernatural world which could not be known by normal means. (I Corinthians 12:8)
18. LEADERSHIP -- The ability to set goals according to God's purposes, to communicate these goals to others in such a way that they voluntarily and harmoniously work together to accomplish those goals for the glory of God. (Romans 12:8)
19. MARTYRDOM -- The ability to undergo suffering for the faith even unto death while consistently displaying a joyous and victorious attitude that brings glory to God. (I Corinthians 13: 3b) NOTE: A Christian can only be a martyr once, but Christians with this gift have a special attitude about death.
20. MERCY -- The ability to feel genuine empathy and compassion for individuals (Christians and non-Christians) who are suffering, and to cheerfully perform deeds which reflect Christ's love and help to alleviate suffering. (Romans 12:8) NOTE: The emphasis is on one-on-one relationships, showing Christ's compassion in personal ways.
21. MIRACLES -- The ability to serve as a channel through whom God can supernaturally perform acts contrary to the normal course of nature. (I Corinthians 12:10, 28)
22. MISSIONARY -- One who effectively uses his or her spiritual gifts in a second culture. (Ephesians 3:7-8) NOTE: Missionary activities encompass much more than proclaiming the Gospel in a foreign culture. The term applies to any Christian willing to use their gifts outside of their normal environment.

- 23. MUSIC -- The ability to worship and serve God by composing or performing songs or melodies. (I Samuel 16:18)
- 24. PASTOR/SHEPHERD -- The ability to assume long-term personal responsibility for the spiritual welfare of a group of people. (Ephesians 4:11) NOTE: This gift is not only for those in the office of pastor, but for any Christian with a "shepherd's heart."
- 25. PROPHECY -- The ability to receive and communicate an immediate message of God to His people through a divinely- anointed utterance. (Romans 12:6; I Corinthians 12:10, 28; Ephesians 4:11)
- 26. SERVICE -- The ability to identify needs and tasks related to God's work, and to make use of available resources to meet those needs and help accomplish the desired goals. (Romans 12:7) NOTE: Service is different from helps because service is more goal- or task-oriented, where helps is more "people-oriented."
- 27. TEACHING -- The ability to communicate information relevant to the health and ministry of the Body of Christ in such a way that others will learn. (Romans 12:7; I Corinthians 12:28; Ephesians 4:11)
- 28. TONGUES -- The ability to speak, sing, or pray for God's glory in a human language the person has never learned, or in a supernatural language. (I Corinthians 12:10, 28)
- 29. VOLUNTARY POVERTY -- The ability to renounce material comfort and luxury, to adopt a life style of poverty in order to serve God more' effectively. (I Corinthians 13:3a)
- 30. WISDOM -- The ability to know the mind of Christ in such a way that the person knows what to do, how to act, or what to say in almost all situations. (I Corinthians 12:8)

105	Many of my prayers for others have been answered by the Lord.	105
106	When someone speaks in tongues, God provides the meaning of the message to me, and I share it with others.	106
107	I can recognize difficult Biblical truths and principles on my. Own, and I enjoy this.	107
108	I can guide and manage a group of people toward achieving a specific goal.	108
109	With a glad heart, I would endure persecution and suffering to the point of death for the sake of my Savior.	109
110	I feel compassion for people who are hurting and lonely, and I spend considerable time cheering them up.	110
111	When situations seem impossible, God often blesses my prayers with His supernatural intervention to resolve them.	111
112	I have no racial or cultural prejudice, and I have a strong desire to meet the spiritual needs of people different from myself.	112
113	I often find myself 'making melodies in my heart' for the Lord.	113
114	I enjoy working with people, and I desire to help them be the best person they can be for the Lord.	114
115	I find it very easy to apply Bible passages to present day situations	115
116	When I see a little job that needs to be accomplished, I jump right in and get it done.	116
117	People often tell me how much they enjoy attending Bible classes when I teach	117
118	I love to sing in tongues, especially during services where others in the congregation are doing the same.	118
119	I wish I could give more, but I have already given so much that I live well below the standards of other people.	119
120	I have the ability to apply knowledge to resolve problems and difficult situations.	120
121	I am comfortable making important decisions, even under pressure	121
122	I am accepted as a spiritual authority in other parts of the country or world.	122
123	I feel the Lord has blessed me with an ability to write clearly and well about spiritual things.	123
124	If someone wanted to marry me, I would turn down their proposal in favor of serving the Lord as a single person.	124
125	People frequently tell me that I am very talented in arts and crafts.	125
126	I can sense when a speaker is empowered by the Holy Spirit or just bringing glory to himself.	126
127	I regularly proclaim the Gospel with such effectiveness that people come to have faith in Jesus Christ.	127
128	I enjoy working with groups of people who share similar problems, and I encourage the entire group.	128
129	People come to me for help when they believe demons are the root cause of their problems, and I have often helped them.	129
130	I often exercise my faith in big ways, and God responds in exciting	130 ways.

131	When I give money to someone, I don't expect anything in return, and I often give anonymously.	131
132	People often seek me out to pray for healing in their lives or in the lives of other people.	132
133	I like to do things like typing, filing, gardening, painting, etc., for the church, or helping in any way that I can.	133
134	I feel that entertaining guests in my home is a real ministry.	134
135	Prayer is my favorite ministry in the church, and I spent a great deal of time at it	135
136	When I hear someone speak or pray in tongues, I understand the message which God is imparting through them.	136
137	People have come under conviction from my insights of the Scriptures and their application to daily life.	137
138	People respect my opinion and follow my direction.	138
139	If I were a missionary in dangerous territory, I would gladly risk death for the Gospel rather than carry firearms.	139
140	I do whatever I can for the needy people around me, even when I have to give up something.	140
141	Through me, God frequently works miracles for the glory of His kingdom.	141
142	There is no doubt in my mind that God has called me to be a missionary.	142
143	The Lord has blessed me with special musical abilities which I use to worship and glorify Him.	143
144	I help Christians who have wandered away from the Lord find their way back to a growing relationship with Him.	144
145	I feel God's blessing, power, and anointing when speaking His message publicly.	145
146	I enjoy helping the church when there are needs, and I feel a sense of satisfaction in meeting those needs.	146
147	I am organized in my thinking and systematic in my approach to presenting Bible lessons to a group of people.	147
148	I have spoken in a language unknown to me, and another Christian interpreted, bringing a blessing to those who heard.	148
149	Material possessions are not important to me, so I have chosen to live with just the bare necessities.	149
150	God often gives me wisdom to meet situations, answer questions or use information known to me.	150

Graphing Your Gifts

As a final step, you may arrange your spiritual gifts in order from your highest sum to your lowest sum. You can make a graph by shading in your sums from 0 to 20:

SPIRITUAL GIFT	SUM	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20
